1951 BARD

Published By The Senior Class
HUBBARD HIGH SCHOOL
HUBBARD, OHIO

Alma Mater

Oh, Hubbard High, we cherish thy dear name,
We will revere thy colors blue and white,
In all our deeds we strive to raise thy fame;
Now as we sing we praise thee to the heights,
To Hubbard High our hearts will e'er be true;
Oh, Hubbard High, long wave the white, the blue.

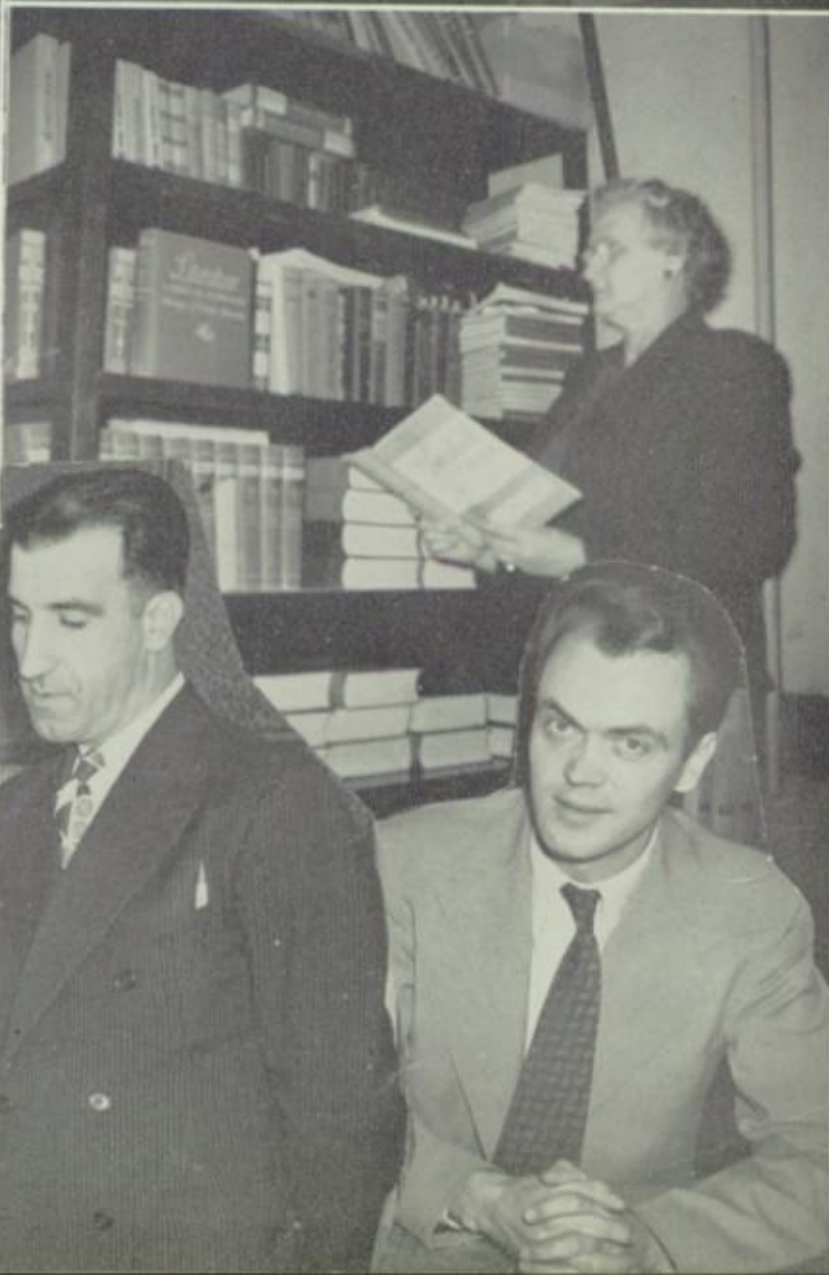

Dedication

To our understanding friend and dear class advisor we wish to dedicate this, our 1951 yearbook.

Mr. St. John assumed the responsibility of our class in the latter part of our Sophomore year after Mr. Sasala, who was our advisor the first two years, left our Alma Mater. Mr. St. John brought us successfully through class plays, dances, and especially the biggest event in our school career, the Junior Prom. We wish to thank him for all the sound advice given to us as well as all the fun we have had working and playing with him.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1951

Your Board of Education is proud of your class and your fine record.

The confusion of the world today has made it impossible for many of you to make any plans for your future; it has even been difficult for some of you to carry on day by day. We commend you for the admirable way in which you have met this obstacle and surmounted it. The class of 1951 has made a fine contribution in citizenship, scholarship, and athletics to further the honor of Hubbard High School.

It has been well and truly said that our schools have kept us a free nation. So long as our schools continue to grow, and to teach the fundamentals of democracy, so long will our nation continue to be free.

We pledge our continued effort to provide for all the pupils of Hubbard a school system where they shall be offered every opportunity to advance and grow in the American way of life.

Believe it or not, hidden behind the typewriter, news stories, and sample ads was the 1951 BARD. The staff had to push a few HUB slaves out of the way now and then, but we managed to hold our own long enough to complete this record of a memorable school year.

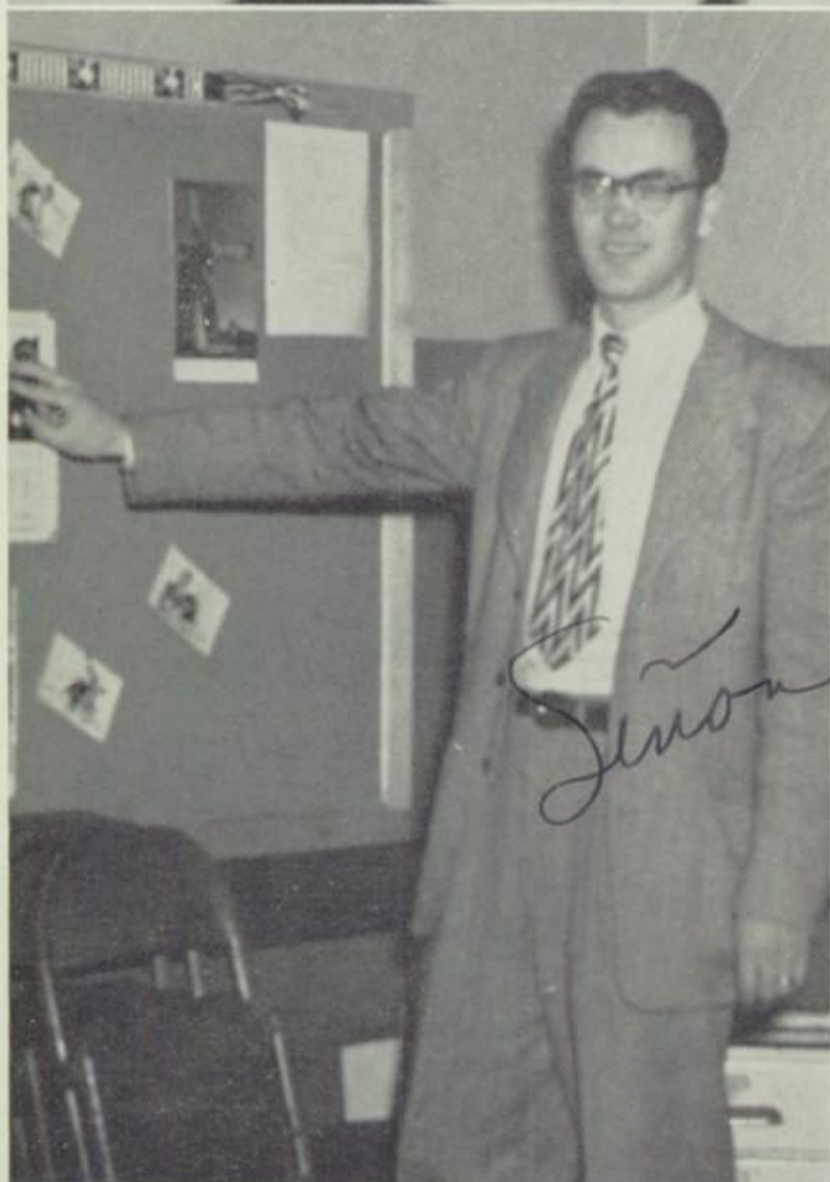

With the seasons, fall, winter, and spring, we progressed from the first day of school to graduation on May 23. Photographers, editors, typists, and advertising solicitors, all worked tirelessly to make the book a success. Filling these pages are the friendship, activities, and classes that were HHS — 1951.

Jim Hurl leaves for the wide open spaces.

Barbara Jones leaves on a honeymoon.

Bob Kelley leaves his class presidency to Ernie Ruby.

Clarence Kirkwood leaves his algebra book to a poor sophomore.

Chuck Ladig leaves, still arguing with Miss Lyons.

Senior Snaps

An apple a day keeps the doctor away . . . Let's not be shoving boys, Joe wants a drink . . . When we were young . . . Miss Lyons isn't going to like the air out of her tires . . . Seniors have a chest Xray . . . We had to shovel our way to school . . . Our co-editor, Lois . . . shall we go back to school after lunch or shall we see the country via a convertible . . . don't hand US a line, boys . . . strolling down the avenue . . . hurry, there goes the tardy bell . . . three handsome beau brummels.

Student Council

The Student Council is a group of boys and girls elected from each class. They meet with Mr. MacDonald and other members of the faculty to discuss the problems of the students within the school. The student relates his ideas to the teacher through the Student Council. Each student has the privilege of expressing his ideas.

One of the chief duties of the Student Council is the arrangement of all assembly programs, this also includes the booking of outside programs.

One of the major responsibilities of Student Council this year was the reorganization of the monitor system which was abandoned two years ago. This group felt it should be reorganized for the benefit of the student body. Monitors were chosen for each period and two were placed on each floor. The head monitor for each period is responsible to see that there is a monitor at every station every period.

Mr. MacDonald is the advisor of the Student Council.

The motto of the Hi Y is "to create, maintain, and extend through the school and community, high standards of Christian character." The group is composed of responsible young fellows united in the purpose to use democratic methods to achieve the embodiment of Christian principles in individual and group conduct. Its watchword is Service — Service to its members, the school, the community, the nation, the world, and God.

Hi Y Civic Day is one of the outstanding days on the school calendar. Boys are chosen to fill various civic offices throughout the Mahoning Valley. Mr. Smouse and Mr. Campana are the advisors.

Our Miss Brooks

The Senior Class presented their play "Our Miss Brooks" in the auditorium on Friday, December 1. It was the same Miss Brooks that is heard on Sunday evenings. The funny, simple minded Miss Brooks and darling brats attempted to keep friends with the basketball coach and at the same time put on a class play. Mr. St. John directed.

G. A. A.

President Dorothy Horvath
 Vice President Elsie Redinger
 Secretary Sally Shaffer
 Treasurer Nancy Koehli

The G. A. A. is an organization of high school girls under the direction of Miss Miller. To be a qualified member you must have 30 points which you acquire from after-school sports.

The purpose of the G. A. A. is to maintain better sportsmanship among the girls.

Numerals are given at the end of each year to every girl, provided she has earned her 30 points. When she has earned 120 points, a letter H is given to her for her efforts in maintaining better sportsmanship among the girls.

Homecoming

Pat passes in review atop Chicone's convertible . . . The Queen and her attendants: Carolyn Straitiff, Dorothy Horvath, Toni Pascarella, Pat Reno, Barbara Reno, Patty Webb, Betty Hettrick, and Mary Jo McAlpin . . . A halloween float . . . Queen Pat and her pepsodent smile . . . Captain Al crowns the queen while Mr. Gray looks on . . . Hurrah!! another first down . . . After the game the students, faculty, and alumni "trip the light fantastic" in the gym.

Pat Reno, a Junior, was crowned Homecoming Queen at the first homecoming celebration in several years. This was an event of October 20 when Sharpesville won over the Eagles in the Memorial Stadium.

A parade, headed by the Band and cheerleaders, preceeded the game. The various high school clubs and organizations entered beautifully decorated floats.

Each class chose two girls from the class as nominees for queen. The queen, chosen by three outside impartial judges, was a complete surprise until a few minutes before game time. Just prior to the kick-off Pat was presented a crown of white baby mums in the shape of an "H" by Captain Al Madeline. A dance followed the game where all students, faculty, and alumni were welcomed.

Class Prophecy

The Senior class of 1951 held their first class reunion last evening at the beautiful Chicone's Manor on the Hubbard - Youngstown Road.

Jean Barclay, the chairman, was the first to arrive. She looked charming in a pale green formal. Jean is engaged to a Cadet from West Point with the date set for June 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stiver (Babs Mason), soon arrived in their new "Olds" convertible. Babs was her usually happy self and would show pictures of her four lovely children to anyone willing to look.

Gerry Beach, Chief beautician at M. G. M. Studios, and Butch Salerno, a Hollywood Chiropodist, arrived with Miss America of 1954, our one and only Toni Pascarella. Al Madeline, John Garfield's double, also made the trip with them.

John Opalenik, still single but having lost none of his charm, was surrounded by a group of admirers most of the evening. Millie Sloan, Madelyn Angelo, Jeannette Lowry, Anna Dickey, and Rose Mary Gur-ela, just to mention a few!!!

Nancy Thomas (Mrs. Andy Panninizo), Beverly Hettrick (Mrs. Charles Ladig), Alice Yates (Mrs. Fred Pappa), and Barbara Suhy (Mrs. Jack Sauline) were seen talking about the "little darlings" they left at home with grandma.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kyle (Diane Chufo) had a death call and left shortly after dinner. They missed Shirley Fiedler, star of Al Faber's new T. V. Show, vocalizing on "Star-lite", by our own Bill Mitchell, conductor and composer. She was accompanied by Nancy Nogal, concert pianist, and Marjorie McPheron, famed violinist.

Fay and Bill Grose, now owners of "Powers and Flaughner", escorted "Rae" Vernell, manager of North Western Mutual Life Insurance Company, and Evelyn Shook, saxaphonist in the Phil Spitalny All Girl Orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson (Joy Smith) arrived in their new 1961 Kelly Green "Forte".

Madelyn Carsone, secretary to "Sandy" Forte, owner of the Forte Motor Company of Detroit, came with her boss and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pogany. "Louie" is known to millions as the "Bubble Gum King". He owns the largest factory in the world with an output of 15,000,000 pounds of bubble gum per year.

Patsy Villano and his charming wife, Mary Jo, flew in from Houston where he is playing with "Tex" Beneky.

Babs Sowers, successful fashion designer, flew in from New York just a few minutes late. She and Don Craig, hero of the Korean War and famed "stock car driver", were busy renewing an old friendship from a way back when.

It seems "Taffi" and "Ronnie" had another argument. She could be seen talking with Lois McLain and Marcella Scott most of the evening while "Ronnie" talked sports with John Luthern, pitcher with the Cleveland Indians, Eugene Pansler, the Yankee shortstop, Don Burton and Jesse Burkey, now playing with the Chicago Bears, "Gooch", the world's heavy weight champion, and Henry Clacko, world famous figure skater with the Ice Follies.

In the recreation room "Mundo", Jim Antenucci, Mike Horvath, Chuck Reed, and Don Singer were shooting pool. Mundo was behind the eight ball a good part of the time.

Betty Ferrar played a few of the old tunes, among which were The Tennessee Waltz, Be Mine, I Wanna Be Loved, and The Thing, while Clarice Foley, Fran Morris, Barbara Jones, Helen Davis, and Joyce Cooley harmonized.

Bob Kelley, our Senior class president, made a speech, bringing back many memories of class plays and picnics, trials, and triumphs through which we always came out on top. Of course, we always needed the help of our advisor, Mr. St. John. Bob is speaker of the House of Representatives at the present time.

Snaps

Halloween Queen candidates, Barbara Reno, Alice Yates, Joyce Hunsinger, and Carolyn Straitiff . . . Around the third floor monitor . . . Alice, our charming Halloween Queen . . . four future secretaries . . . strolling through the halls at noon . . . The Spanish class on a field trip . . . Oh! to be an executive and have a couple of secretaries like these . . . Miss Burrows signing permits in Room 37 . . . Home Room 34 . . . Making snow balls . . . These boys will make some girl a good wife . . . Mickey gets a beaker of ashes for chemistry.

CLASS PROPHECY (Continued)

Among the others attending were: Tom Landy, sports editor of the New York Times; Bob Gergle, who has recently taken over the Arthur Godfrey Show; John Wad-jun, famous Fruitland Acres contractor; Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Deininger (Sally Shaffer) of Chicago; Jerome Wittenauer, who is now Hopalong Cassidy to the world; Donna Patrick, Physics professor at Ohio State University; Helen Gonder, "Vogue" photographer; Henry Ruehle, noted commercial artist with Lucky Strike Cigarettes; Sally Quinn, A Conover model; Jack Garland, Kansas City mayor; Bill Novosel, comedian on Bob Hope's Show; James Phillips, Judge of the Supreme Court; Richard Pucak, mayor of Coalburg; Joe Blazak, Harry McFall, and Louis Haggerty, Oklahoma Cowboys; Bill Blair, owner of the Sohio chain of gas stations; Jim Hurl, teacher of Senior English at Hubbard High School; Don Harder, head mechanic at Bowers Ford Garage; Richard Lovas, The Lone Ranger of radio fame; Richard Fell, manager of Public Utilities in Hubbard; Clarence Kirkwood, mayor of Hubbard; Jean Allen, famous Bazooka player with Spike Jones; Margaret Huish, Norma Landis, Dona Reese, and Dorothy Horvath, the Chordettes on Arthur Godfrey's program; Adele Linsley, Director of Home Economics at the University of Petroleum; George Laubert, inventor of the H Bomb; Donald Ritenour, Post Master General; Mary Lou Reese, senator from Ohio; Delano Thompson, manufacturer of farm machinery; Bill Popa, President of the Hubbard Baking Company; Emerson Tobey, Spanish teacher at Hubbard High School; Betty Edwards, owner of the Greek's; and Dutch Petten, M. C. on the Ladies Be Seated program.

Irma Redinger (Mrs. William Sauline) sent her regards to all on this the 10th anniversary of our graduation, but she was unable to come as she is with Bill in Mexico at the present time.

Many old friends met for the first time in years and there are definite plans for a reunion in 1966.

The evening ended with the singing of the Alma Mater, lead by Mr. Albright and Faculty chorus consisting of Mr. MacDonald, Mr. White, Mr. Smouse, Miss Toy, Miss Miller, Miss Reed, and Mr. Reynolds accompanied on the "Squeeze Box" by the billionaire owner and manufacturer of HADACOL, Mr. Berardi, the mouth organ played by Mr. Ballenger, the bass fiddle played by Mrs. Hamilton, the jews-harp played by Mr. Cunningham, the snare drums played by Mr. Sontag, and the pianist Mr. Schmidt.

Hubbard High's Class of 'Fifty-one

It may be work, or it may be fun
But let's list the class of fifty - one.

First, there's Allen with hair of red
And Angelo, who also has a pretty head.

Then there is Jesse who played football
And Johnny who'd love to but he's not very tall.

Here comes Ronnie, a good looking guy,
And Don Burton, too,— oh, me, oh, my.

Around Hubbard High are couples galore
Joy and Frank make one couple more.

Miss Huish, I know, plans to be a nurse
Bob Kelly, our president, may still drive a hearse.

Next are the Grose twins, Bill and Fay
Whose favorite night is Saturday.

Jimmy and "Shnick" are farmers, I hear
To die of hunger, they need not fear.

Toni and Gerry are pals so it seems
Both of them are pretty and on the beam.

When I leave High School, I'd love to come back
If I thought there'd be couples like Shirley and Jack.

Here comes Diane and also Joyce
They're both pretty — take your choice.

Then little Nancy, the shortest of all
Followed by Lois, wishing she wasn't so tall.

Patrick has the longest nails,
Scott's so bright, she never fails.

Next comes Pogany another senior pal.
His sweetheart is a pretty sophomore gal.

Here comes Helen D. with Helen G.
They're both swell kids, believe me.

Madelyn and Irma both take typing —
So what? Their boss will still be griping.

Singer and Forte are two nice guys
If they fail, it will be a surprise.

Clacko did himself proud as our drum major
If he lost Rae, would he page her?

Jim and Henry rode bus ten
If they had their choice, would they, again?

Then comes Kike, our sportsman and friend
His friendly disposition will never end.

Our friend Gooch lives across from Jeannette
For years they've had fun, and never fought, yet.

Next comes Sally who would love to tarry
If the young man she awaited was one called Jerry.

Then there are Butch and Jim from fifth period speech
Someone should get them a sweetheart for each.

Carmen and Al are two nice boys
Because they're in Hubbard, we share many joys.

Jean and Betty are nice, so I hear
If its true, a lack of friends they need not fear.

Mundo and Gergle shouldn't hurry
Once more late, and then they worry.

Don and Delano are musically inclined
They both play violins, I find.

If you want fun, try Bev and Chuck
I wish this couple loads of luck.

The Reese girls aren't sisters but fun just the same
Try Mary Lou, or Dona, or what's her name.

Quinn is interested in YoCo this season —
Could Evie Shook give us the reason?

It seems that Eugene likes to study hard
While Sonny thinks, "you crazy, pard?"

Our Burhead went into the Navy
If he's lucky, he'll return with hair that is wavy.

Norma and Adele of the home ec class
Will it be a career, or kids in a mass?

Next comes Dick followed by Tom
Add some girls and get results of an H - Bomb.

There is Sowers and Mason, two Barbaras,
I guess
If you need help, ask them, they'll say yes.

HUBBARD HIGH'S CLASS OF 'FIFTY - ONE (Continued)

Next are Millie and Suhy, two senior beauties
They like to loaf but never shirk their duties.

Now, it's Harry and John, two quiet lads
If exempt from exams, they would be glad.
Fran and Nancy sit together in thirty-four Knowing them — need I say more ?

Mitchell and Novosel are two Bills
With their charm they should soon have two Jills.

Jones and Dickey are two nice girls
Their main problem is those neck-line curls.

A lucky senior is Rosemary Gurlea
Who told me the other day, her hair is naturally curly.

Now here are Ferrar and Foley, two true friends
Even after high school this friendship will never end.

Next there are Blazak and Kirkwood, both nice boys
If there were more like them, we'd have more joys.

Here comes a senior, known as Chuck Reed
When school is over, just watch his speed !

Another senior is Bill Blair
Who never cheats, but is always fair.

Horvath and Yates are sure to succeed
They're smart and pretty — what more do they need ?

Bert and Don are both nice looking Several girls have said to them — What's Cooking ? ? ? ?

Dutch and Bill are two nice guys
That's all for them — surprise !

With Haggerty and Wittenauer, two farmers more
There should be enough, and more to store.

Patsy and Emerson are more senior pals
Do they or don't they have any gals ?

Mr. St. John, our dear class advisor
Because we've known him, we feel much wiser.

Except your writer, that is all
If McPherson you yell, she'll answer your call.

Barbara and Jack were driving alone on one of the local streets. "Is it dangerous," inquired Barbara, "to drive with one hand?"

"Oh, you bet," replied Jack very quickly, "More than one fellow has run in to a church doing it."

So nigh is grandeur to our dust,
So near is God to man,
When duty whispers low, "Thou Must"
The youth replies, "I can".

CONGRATULATIONS, CLASS OF 1951!

You've reached the end of a four-year street . . .
or at least that's the way you feel now. The secret's in the word commencement, though. Commence means to begin . . . you'll begin being a part of a startling new world . . . a world that looks to you to guide it . . . away from fear, oppression, prejudice and hate.

"The first years are the hardest," but they're yours!

Let's see what you can do with them!
